Hilye-i Sherif
By Hafiz Osman Efendi

(from Tirmidhi:) The Prophet said, “He who sees my hilye after me, it is as if he had actually seen me, and he who sees it out of love and desire for me, God will forbid the fire of Hell to touch him. He will be safe from the trials of the grave, and he will not be sent forth naked on the day of resurrection.”

Descriptions (Hilye) of the Holy Prophet (sws)

Translated by Mohamad Zakaria

Transmitted from Ali, may God be pleased with him, who, when asked to describe the Prophet, peace be upon him, would say: He was not too tall nor too short. He was medium sized. His hair was not short and curly, nor was it lank, but in between. His face was not narrow, nor was it fully round, but there was a roundness to it. His skin was white. His eyes were black. He had long eyelashes. He was big-boned and had wide shoulders. He had no body hair except in the middle of his chest. He had thick hands and feet. When he walked, he walked inclined, as if descending a slope. When he looked at someone, he looked at them in full face.

Between his shoulders was the seal of prophecy, the sign that he was the last of the prophets. He was the most generous-hearted of men, the most truthful of them in speech, the most mild-tempered of them, and the noblest of them in lineage. Whoever saw him unexpectedly was in awe of him. And whoever associated with him familiarly, loved him. Anyone who would describe him would say, I never saw, before him or after him, the like of him. Peace be upon him.

Hilal related to us, from Ata Bin Yasar. He said: “I met Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Al-As, and I said, ‘Tell me about the description of the Prophet of God, peace be upon him.’”

He said, “Yes, certainly. By God, he was described in the Torah in some ways as in the Quran, ‘O Prophet, we have sent you as a witness, a bringer of good tidings, and a warner’ and as a protector of the weak. You are my servant and prophet. I have named you The One Who Relies.”

“He was not crude, nor was he coarse, nor was he one to shout and make a lot of noise in the marketplace. He did not answer an evil deed with another, but he would pardon and forgive. He would not be taken by God until he had straightened out the crooked people, until they would confess there was no divinity but God, and open blind eyes and deaf ears and closed hearts. O God, grant mercy and peace to our master Muhammad and his family.”

Al-Hasan, son of Ali [May God be pleased with both of them] said: “I asked my uncle Hind, son of Abu Hala about the hilye [description] of the Prophet of God, my peace and blessings be upon him. Hind was known to be a prolific describer of the Prophet, and I wished him to relate some of it for me so I might hold fast to it.”

So Hind said: “The Prophet of God, peace be upon him, was of mighty significance to God, and profoundly honored among the people. His face radiated light like the moon on its fullest night. He was a bit taller than the medium stature and a bit shorter than the tall and skinny. His head was large. His hair was wavy. If his hair parted, he would leave it parted, if not he would leave it, and it would not be long enough to pass his earlobes. His complexion was fair. He had a wide forehead, arched, thick eyebrows with a space between them. There was a vein between them that would swell and pulse when he was angry. His nose was aquiline; it had a brightness about the upper part that led those who were less observant to think him haughty. He had a thick beard. His eyes were very black and the whites very white. His cheeks were not prominent, he had a wide mouth. His teeth were white and there was a space between his front teeth.

“There was a fine line of hair on his chest, and it was as if it were an ivory statue with the purity of silver. His figure was well proportioned, full bodied and strong. There was no slackness in his musculature, his chest didn’t protrude over his belly, nor the reverse. His chest was broad and his shoulders wide and muscular. He had large limbs. The parts of his body that could be seen while he was clothed were luminous. His body from the neck to the navel was joined by hair which flowed down like a line. There was no hair on his nipples. His forearms, shoulders, and upper chest were hairy. The bones of his forearms were long. His palms were wide and generous. His hands and feet were thick. His limbs were long. He had long sinews. His insteps were high. His feet were smooth without protuberances and water would run off of them. When he would move off, he would move with determination. He would step surely and unhurriedly and not proudly. He walked gently and with dignity, and he would take wide steps when he wanted to walk quickly. When he walked, it was as if he were descending from a slope and when he would look at someone, he would turn to him fully. He would lower his gaze and look down more often than up. He didn’t stare. He would lead his companions by walking behind them out of modesty and would always be the first to greet them.”

At this point, Al-Hasan said to Hind, “Describe to me the way he spoke.”

Hind said, “The Prophet of God, peace and blessings be upon him, was continually full of concern. He was constantly deep in thought. He had no rest, and would not speak without a reason. He would be silent for long periods of time. He would begin conversations, and end them clearly and distinctly and would speak in a way that combined many meanings in few words. He spoke with excellence, and there was no excess in it, nor unnatural brevity. He was gentle by nature and not coarse, nor was he contemptuous of anyone. He would extol the favors he received, even when they were few and small. He never found fault with them. He never criticized the food or drink that was prepared for him, nor did he overly praise it. No one would stand against his anger when matters of the Lord’s truth were opposed, until he had triumphed, but he would never get angry for his own sake, nor would he ever seek to win such an argument. He would gesture with his whole palm, to point. When he was astonished, he would make his palm face upwards. He used his hands frequently as he spoke, and would strike his left palm with his right thumb. When he would get angry, he would turn away and avert his gaze, and when he was full of joy he would lower his eyes. Most of his laughing was as smiling; when he did laugh, it was not loud, and he would show his teeth a bit like they were hailstones.”

Al-Hasan said, "I kept this report to myself, away from [my brother] Al-Husayn for awhile, then I told it to him, but he had already heard it and found out even more. He had asked our father [Ali] about the way the Prophet of God, peace be upon him, was at home, when he went out in his assemblies, and about his way of living." Al-Hasan left nothing of this out.

Al-Husayn said, "I asked my father [Ali], may God be pleased with him, about how the Prophet of God, peace be upon him, was at home."

He [Ali] said, "He always asked permission to enter his home, from God, and those within. When at home, he would divide his time into three parts, one for God, one for his family, and one for himself. Then he would divide his own portion between himself and the people. His elite companions would mostly share this time with him, and they would convey his words to the common people. He would hold nothing back from them, neither knowledge or worldly things. It was his way to prefer the people of excellence, according to their merit in religious matters. Among the people there were those with a need, those with two needs, and those with many needs. He would work with them, and he would occupy them and the community in general with that which would improve their situations. This he would do by asking about them and their needs, and informing them what they ought to do. He would say, 'Let the one who is present among you inform the one who is absent, and bring to me the need of he who is unable to tell me himself. Truly, the one who informs a person of authority of the need of one who is unable to convey it himself, God will make firm his feet on the day of judgment.' This was the kind of topic mentioned in his presence, and he didn't accept anything else from anyone [he didn't like meaningless conversation and liked to talk about how to help people]."

Ali then said, in the hadith of Sufyan Ibn Waki: "They would come as scouts [seeking decisions or knowledge], and they would not go on their way until they had found what they sought, and then they would leave as guides and learned people."

I said [Husayn to his father Ali], "Tell me about his going out and how he acted outside."

Ali said, "The Prophet of God, peace and blessings upon him, would hold his tongue except in matters which concerned his companions. He would encourage affection and concord between them and would say nothing to alienate one from another. He honored the nobles of every people who would come to him and make them their leaders. He would be wary around some people and on his guard against them [especially nomads], but he would never withhold from anyone his open-faced friendliness and fine personality. He would ask his companions about their situations, and he would ask people about what was going on amongst them. He would approve of that which was good and advocate it, and he would denounce that which was base and discourage it.

"Everything he did was in moderation, without excess or contrariness. He was not thoughtless, out of fear that those who came to him would become unmindful or weary. He was prepared for every situation in this world and the next. He didn't fail to fulfill what was right, and he didn't overstep his authority in regards to those near him. The most meritorious and excellent people to him were those whose advice was most universal; the most significant of them to him were those most beneficial to others, and the most helpful in helping others bear their burdens."

Then Al-Husayn said, “Then I asked him [Ali] about his gatherings and about what he did in them, and he said: “The Prophet of God, peace be upon him, did not sit down or stand up without mentioning God, nor did he reserve for himself fixed places among the people to be seated, and he forbade others also to reserve places for themselves [especially in mosques and public gatherings]. When he would go to visit a group, he would sit in the nearest available spot, and ordered that others follow this practice. He would give those seated near him his full share of attention in such a way that no one would think others had been given precedence over him. Whenever someone he would be sitting with would tell him of his needs, he would bear with that person until that person left him. When someone would ask him to solve a problem, he would not turn him away without solving it for him, if possible, or saying a comforting word or a prayer for its fulfillment. His cheerfulness and open personality were felt by all the people, and he became like a father to them. They came to have the right of mercy and compassion from him, as they were close, like the relation of parent and child, distinguished only by virtue and devotion to God. And in another narrative, they became equals regarding their rights in his eyes.

“Assemblies with him were gatherings of gentleness, dignified conduct, modesty, patience, and trust. No voice would be raised, nor would women be spoken of in a depraved way, nor would peoples’ errors be mentioned. [This last item comes via different narrations.] They inclined to each other in affection out of devotion to God, as humble people. In these gatherings, the old were honored, the young were treated with gentleness. They would come to the aid of the needy and would have compassion for the stranger.”

And then I asked him [Ali] about the Messenger’s conduct among his close associates and servants.

[Ali] said: “The Prophet of God, peace be upon him, was unfailingly cheerful, easy going by nature, and mild mannered. He was neither crude nor coarse . He was not a clamorous loudmouth, nor a repeater of obscenities. He was not one to find faults in others, nor did he overly praise them either. He was unconcerned about what he did not want, and this did not bother him. He allowed his soul no portion of three things – hypocrisy, acquisitiveness, and that which did not concern him. He did not allow himself to engage in three things regarding people – he would not criticize others, he would not revile anyone, and he would not seek out others’ faults. He would speak of nothing unless he hoped a reward from God for it. When he would talk, the ones sitting with him would be so still and quiet, you would imagine birds were sitting on their heads. When he was silent, they would talk, but not quarrel in his presence. When one of them would talk, they would all listen attentively until he had finished. They would speak about a subject that was brought up by the first to speak until they had finished with it. He would laugh at what they laughed at, and he would be amazed by what amazed them. He was patient with the stranger who had roughness in his speech. He would say, ‘Whenever you see someone seeking to solve a problem, help him out.’ He did not seek praise, except to be spoken of appropriately. He wouldn’t interrupt another’s speech unless it got excessive or too long, then he would end it or get up to leave.”

Here ends the hadith of Sufyan IbnWaki. Through other narrators, Al-Hasan continues in the words of his brother Al-Husayn. I said [to Ali], “What was the silence of the Prophet of God [peace upon him] like?”

He said, “His silences were for four situations: forbearance, caution, estimation, and contemplation. As for his estimation, it was to take an impartial study of events and listen to the people in order to be just. As for his contemplation, it was about what was eternal and what was transitory. His forbearance was part of his patience, he was not angered by that which was provocative. His caution was for four reasons – taking good speech or action into consideration so he might use it in an exemplary way; abjuring the ugly and bad so it would be left alone; exerting his judgment to improve the situation of his community; [and] establishing ways to maintain the good order of his community in regard to this world and the next.”

The description is finished, with thanks and praise to God for His aid.

The Description of the Rawdah (Prophetic Paradise Garden, which is between his prayer area and his resting place)

The following is a description of the Rawdah in which the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him, lies. In close proximity to his tomb lie the caliphs Abu Bakr and Omar, son of Khattab, may Allah be pleased with them.

Urwa, the son of As-Zubayr, a companion of the Prophet, may Allah praise and venerate him, mentioned that the tomb of the Prophet, may Allah praise and venerate him, lies in an alcove whereas that of Abu Bakr is behind the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him, whilst the tomb of Omar, son of Khattab lies at the feet of Abu Bakr. On the eastern side of the alcove an empty space remains and it is narrated in the quotations of the Prophet, may Allah praise and venerate him, that Prophet Jesus, son of Mary, peace be upon him, will be buried there.

Lady Ayesha, may Allah be pleased with her, said, “I saw three moons descend into my room. I mentioned my vision to Abu Bakr, may Allah be pleased with him, who told me, 'O Ayesha, this means that there will be three buried in your house and they are better than all the people of the earth.' When the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, passed away, he was buried in my room, whereupon Abu Bakr, may Allah be pleased with him, said to me, 'This is one your moons and he is the best of them, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace.'”

Maqam of Imam Jazuli

His full name was Abu Abdullah Muhammad, son of Suleiman, son of Abi Bakr Al-Jazuli Al-Simlali and was a descendant of Prophet Muhammad, praise and veneration be upon him, via his grandson Hasan, son of Ali, may Allah be pleased with them.

Al Jazuli belonged to the Berber tribe of Jazula that settled in the Sus area of Morocco which lies between the Atlantic ocean and the Atlas mountains.

The date of his death is uncertain, however it occurred between the years 869-873 AH as he offered an obligatory prayer.

In the Encyclopedia of Islam, 1957 Leiden, it is reported that seventy-seven years after his death his body was exhumed for reburial in Marrakesh and that his body had not decomposed.

And if you see your ego controlling you,
And it comes to lead you into the Fire of Desires, Banish its desires by continuous blessing, There is nothing to compare with Dalail-i Hayrat Be steadfast in your reading of Dalail-i Hayrat.
Read it to obtain your wishes, Lights appear and blaze thereby, O my brethren, it is never to be abandoned.

Shaykh Jazuli's Introduction

The Shaykh, the Imam, the Great Saint, the Renowned Pillar, the Sultan of Those who are Near, and the Pillar of the Truthful, the Master of the Gnostics, the Possessor of Clear Miracles and Abundant Secrets, Sayyidi Abu Abdullah Muhammad ibn Suleyman Al-Jazuli, may Allah be pleased with him, said:

Praise be to Allah who has guided us to belief and to Islam, and blessings and peace be upon Muhammad, His Prophet who has delivered us from worshipping statues and idols.

The subject of this Book is the remembrance to ask for blessings upon the Prophet, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, and its benefits. We mention the traditions without the chains of transmission in order to make it easier for the reader to memorize them, this being one of the important essentials for whosoever seeks the nearness of the Lord of lords.

I have named this Book "Guide to Good Deeds and the Brilliant Burst of Light in the Remembrance of Blessings on the Chosen Prophet", desiring the pleasure of Allah, the Exalted and love for His noble messenger, Muhammad, may abundant blessings and peace of Allah be upon him.

Allah is the One responsible for enabling us to follow his way, and letting us love those who are perfect, for He is Able to do this. There is no god except He, and there is no good except His good, and He is the Best Protector and Best Helper, and there is neither help nor power except through Allah the High, the Mighty.

The benefit of requesting praise upon the prophet, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace is: Allah, the Mighty, the Sublime said: "Allah and His angels praise and venerate the Prophet. Believers, praise and venerate him and pronounce peace upon him in abundance." Koran Chapter 33:56

And it is related that the messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, came to us with visible signs of good tidings upon his face. He said: "Indeed, Gabriel, peace be upon him, said to me: 'Are you not pleased, O Muhammad, that whenever one of your nation asks Allah to praise you, Allah will praise him tenfold, and that whenever one of your nation asks Allah to grant you peace, Allah will grant peace tenfold.'"

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "The nearest person to me is the one who asks for blessings upon me the most."

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Whosoever asks for blessings upon me, angels will praise him for long as he asks, no matter whether the time is short or long."

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "A person is considered a miser if, when I am mentioned in his presence, he fails to supplicate for blessings upon me."

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Supplicate for more blessings upon me on Friday."

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Whosoever of my nation asks for blessings upon me once, ten good deeds are written down for him and ten sins are erased."

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Whosoever hears the call to prayer and says, 'O Allah, Lord of this perfect call and this established prayer, grant Muhammad the nearest station, the pre-eminence, the exalted rank and raise him to the most praised station which You have promised him,'¹ my intercession for him will be binding on the Day of Resurrection."

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "For whosoever asks for blessings upon me in a Book, the angels praise him for as long as my name is in that Book."

And Abu Suleiman Ad-Darani said: "Whosoever wishes to request something from Allah, let him increase his asking for blessings upon the prophet, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, and then he may ask Allah about his affair and then seal his request by once more asking for blessings upon the prophet, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, because Allah will accept the two requests for blessings upon the prophet and this is more noble than whatever he asks for in between."

And it is related that he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Whosoever asks Allah one hundred times to praise me on a Friday will be forgiven the sins of eighty years."

And Abu Hurayrah, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "The Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, said, 'For whosoever asks for blessings upon me there is a light on the Bridge (over Hell), and the people of light on the Bridge will not be among the People of the Fire.'"

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Whosoever deliberately neglects to ask for blessings upon me has strayed from the path to the Garden, because the route to the Garden is barred to the neglectful, whereas it is open for whosoever asks for blessings upon me."

It is related by Abdur Rahman ibn Awf, may Allah be pleased with him, that Prophet Muhammad, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace said: "Gabriel, peace be upon be him, said, 'O Muhammad, whenever anyone of your nation asks for blessings upon you, seventy thousands angels praise him, and whosoever is blessed by angels is one of the people of the Garden.'"

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "The more you ask for the blessings upon me, the more you will have in the Garden."

It is related that he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Whenever someone asks for blessings upon me, extolling my right, Allah, the Mighty, the Sublime creates from His Words an angel with wings that stretch from the east to the west, and with feet that are connected to the nearest part of the seventh earth and a bowed neck beneath the Throne. Allah, the Mighty, the Sublime says to him, 'Bless My worshipper as he asks for blessings upon My Prophet' and thereupon the angel will praise him until the Day of Resurrection."

It is related that he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "There will come to my pool on the Day of Resurrection nations whom I will only recognize on account of their frequent asking for blessings upon me."

It is related that he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace: "Whosoever supplicates to Allah for blessings upon me, Allah will praise him ten times, and whosoever supplicates for blessings upon me ten times, Allah will praise him one hundred times, and whosoever supplicates to Allah for blessings upon me one hundred times Allah will praise him one thousand times, and whosoever supplicates to Allah for blessings upon me one thousand times, Allah will prohibit the Fire to touch his body. His word on any matter will be made to endure in this world and the next, and he will enter the Garden on the Day of Resurrection at his request because his supplication for blessings upon me will be a light for him on the Bridge (over Hell); a light which is visible at a distance of five hundred years, and for every blessing he supplicated for me Allah will grant him a palace in the Garden, regardless of how many."

And Prophet Muhammad, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace said: "Whenever a worshipper supplicates for blessings upon me, his request leaves him swiftly and passes over land and sea, through east and west, saying: 'I am the blessing upon Muhammad, the chosen one, the best of the creation of Allah, supplicated for by so and so' and everything supplicates for blessings upon me. A bird is created from these blessings with seventy thousand wings, each of which has seventy thousand feathers. Each feather has seventy thousand heads with seventy thousands faces. Each face has seventy thousands mouths and in every mouth there are seventy thousand tongues. Each tongue glorifies Allah, the Exalted in seventy thousand languages and Allah will then write for him the reward for all of that."

Ali ibn Abi Talib, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "The Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, said, 'For whosoever asks Allah to praise me one hundred times on a Friday, a light will come for him on the Day of Resurrection, a light which, if it were to be divided among them, would be enough for the whole of creation'."

It is mentioned in the good tidings: "It is written on the leg of the Throne 'Whosoever yearns for Me, I am merciful to him. Whosoever asks Me, I will grant him his wish. Whosoever draws near to Me, by asking for blessings upon My Beloved Muhammad, I will forgive him, even if his sins were as plentiful as the foam on the surface of the ocean'."

And it is related by one of the companions, may Allah be pleased with them, "A beautiful fragrance rises that reaches the clouds in the sky when a gathering supplicates for blessings upon Muhammad, praise and veneration be upon him, and the angels say, 'This is a gathering in which blessings upon Muhammad, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, are being requested'."

Other reports mention that, "The gates of the heavens are opened for a believing worshipper, male or female, who begins by asking for blessings upon Muhammad, and the pavilions are opened as far as the Throne, and all the angels praise Muhammad, may Allah praise and venerate him, and ask for forgiveness for that worshipper for as long as Allah wishes."

And he said, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, "Whosoever is troubled by any matter should increase his asking for blessings upon me, and his anxieties, sorrows and concerns will be removed, and his provision will increase and his needs will be satisfied."

And one of the righteous said, "A neighbor of mine who was a scribe, died. I saw him in a vision and asked him how Allah had treated him. He replied, 'He has forgiven me'. I asked, 'For what reason did He forgive you?' and he replied, 'Whenever I wrote the name of Muhammad, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, in a Book, I asked Allah to praise him and for this my Lord has given me what no eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard and what no mortal has ever imagined'."

And it is related from Anas, may Allah be pleased with him, that he (Prophet Muhammad), may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, said, "None of you truly believe until I am dearer to him than his own self, his wealth, his children, his parents and all other people."

And it is related in the quotation of Omar, may Allah be pleased with him, that he said to Prophet Muhammad, may Allah praise and venerate him, "You are dearer to me, O Messenger of Allah, than everything I possess except my own self which is within me." The Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, replied: "You will not be a believer until I am dearer to you than your own self." Omar replied, "By Him who revealed to you the Book, you are dearer to me than my own self." The Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him, replied, "Omar, now your faith is complete."

And it was asked of the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace. "When will I attain belief?" (In another version, "When will I attain true belief?") He replied, "When you love Allah." It was said, "And when will I love Allah?" He answered, "When you love His Messenger." Then it was asked, "And when will I love His Messenger?" He replied, "When you follow his path, adhere to his way, love what he loves and hate what he hates, befriend whom he befriends and oppose whom he opposes – and people will be distinguished, one from another, in their disbelief according to their hatred of me."

Can there be belief for those who have no love for him?

Can there be belief for those who have no love for him?

It was said to the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, "We see believers who are humble and believers who are not humble. What is the reason for this?" He replied, "It is because one finds his faith adorned with humility whereas the other does not." It was said, "How can we find such faith, or obtain it, or earn it?" He replied, "By sincerely loving Allah." It was asked, "How can the love of Allah be found or earned?" He replied, "By loving His Messenger." So seek the pleasure of Allah and the pleasure of His Messenger by loving them."

And it was said to the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, "Who are the family of Muhammad whom we are ordered to love and honor, and treat with reverence?" He replied, "The people of purity and fidelity, who sincerely believe in me." It was said, "What are their signs?" He answered, "The traces of my love are on every lover and their inner life is busy with remembering me and remembering Allah" (In another version the words are, "Their signs are being addicted to remembering me and constantly asking for blessings upon me.")

It was said to the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, "Who is he that is strong in his love for you?" He replied, "The one who believes in me without seeing me, for he is a believer in me through yearning and is sincere in his love for me. A sign of this is that he desires a vision of me more than anything he owns (in another version it reads, "...than all the gold in the world") This is a true believer in me, whose love for me is true and sincere."

It was said to the Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, "Are you aware of those who ask for blessings upon you who are not present and will come after you? What is their status?" He replied, "I hear the blessings of the people who love me and I know them, as well as the blessings invoked by those who are not present."

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

There are five different ways to read Dalail-i Hayrat:

1. All together in one sitting
2. In two halves, divided over two days
3. In three thirds, over three days 4. In four quarters, over four days
5. In eight sections (hisb), over one week.

If you wish to recite this as part of a wurd, you should begin recitation on a Monday, and say one Hizb (section) each day. If you miss a day, you may make it up the next day if you like, but it is also okay to pick up with the hizb for that day and continue.

The sections marked “Before Salawat” and “After Salawat” on the following pages are to be recited every day before and after each hizb or section. It is also traditional to recite the Asma ul-Husna (saying “jalla jallallahu” after each name) and the Names of the Prophet (sws) before beginning a new recitation of Dalail-i Hayrat.

Example:

One hizb a day method:

1. Say the section “To Be Recited Before Beginning Salawat” 2. Recite the Asma ul-Husna
3. Recite the Names of the Prophet (sws) 4. Recite the first hizb, beginning where it says “1st hizb – Monday starts here” and stopping where it says “Monday ends here”
5. Close with the section “To Be Recited After Making Salawat”

The next day (Tuesday) I could say #1 above and then skip #2 and #3 and go directly to the second hizb, and so on for the rest of the week. Then on the following Monday, I would say #1, recite the final, 8th hizb, and then I would have the option to say the 1st hizb immediately to open the next week OR I could proceed to #5 and then start over again from the beginning 1,2,3 etc...

If you are reciting one khatam, or halves, thirds, or quarters, you would follow the same basic pattern, varying only the length of time you spend at #4.

Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds.
Allah suffices me, and He is the best Protector. There is no help or power except with Allah, the High, the Mighty.
O Allah, I rid myself of reliance upon any help or power except Your Help and Your Power. O Allah, it is my intention to ask for blessings upon Muhammad, Your worshipper, Your Prophet and Your Messenger, the Master of Messengers, may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him. In obedience to Your Command and with belief in him, loving him and longing for him, extolling the greatness of his rank and because he is deserving of this. Accept this from us through Your Favors and Your Grace, and make us of Your Righteous Worshippers for the sake of his honor in Your Presence, and the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Muhammad, his family and his companions. I ask Allah for forgiveness! (3x) Glory be to Allah, Praise be to Allah! (3x) Allah suffices me and He is the best Protector! (3x)

I seek refuge with Allah from Satan, the favors and most loving kindness to Muhammad, Your worshipper and Your messenger, the opener of that which was locked and the seal of that which has gone before, the announcer of truth with truth, and the refuter of the forces of falsehood. He took upon himself, in obedience to You, the responsibility of Your order, earnestly seeking in haste Your Pleasure, heeding Your Revelation, keeping Your Promise, carrying out and executing your Command so that by kindling a burning brand for the seeker, his family gain access through him to the blessings of Allah. Hearts were guided through him after having entered into discord and sin, and he gladdened with evident signs, with enlightening laws and illuminating Islam. And he is Your trusted, and safe custodian of Your secret knowledge, Your witness on the Day of Judgement and Your envoy, a favor for us and Your messenger, in truth, a mercy for us. O Allah raise that which he built over all that mankind has built and ennoble his place and his sojourn with You, and complete for him his light and reward him with Your approval so that his testimony is accepted and his word is pleasing to You, making him the one whose utterance is just, and whose course is distinct and whose argument is Mighty. O Allah, widen for him his place in Your Eden and reward him doubly with the goodness of Your Favor granting him untarnished felicitations from the victory of Your Reward, which is plentiful and fitting, and from Your Exalted Gift.

“Allah and His Angels praise and venerate the Prophet. Believers, praise and venerate him and pronounce peace upon him in abundance.” (33:56) I am here, O Allah, my Lord at Your service and at Your command. The blessings of Allah, the Good, the Merciful, and of His closest angels, and of the prophets and the sincere, and of the martyrs and the good, and whatever else exists that exalts You. O Lord of the Worlds. You are for Muhammad, son of Abdullah, the seal of the prophets and master of the messengers, the leader of the pious and the messenger of the Lord of the Worlds, the witness, the bringer of good tidings, the caller to You by Your permission, the lamp, the Illumined, on him may there be peace.

O Allah, grant Your blessings, favors, and mercy upon the master of the messengers and the leader of the pious and seal of the prophets, Muhammad, Your worshipper and Your messenger, the pioneer of goodness and guide to goodness, the messenger of mercy. O Allah, raise him to the most praised station, the envy of those who came first and those who came last. O Allah, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad just as You praised Abraham, for You are the Praiseworthy, the Mighty. O Allah, sanctify Muhammad and the family of Muhammad just as You sanctified Abraham, for You are the Praiseworthy, the Mighty.

O Allah praise Muhammad as we have been ordered to ask for praises upon him. O Allah praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as he deserves. O Allah praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as is Your will and just as You are pleased with him.

O Allah praise Muhammad in the heavenly assembly until the Day of Reckoning. O Allah grant Muhammad the position of the nearest station, the pre-eminence and the noblest and the greatest rank. O Allah I have believed in Muhammad and I have not seen him, so do not deprive my heart of a vision of him and provide me with his companionship. Let me die upon his way, and lead me to drink from his pool plentifully, blissfully, heartily, the drink after which I will never thirst. You are the Power of all things. O Allah send to the soul of Muhammad my greetings and my salutations. O Allah just as I have believed in Muhammad without seeing him, so do not deprive my heart of a vision of him.

O Allah accept the great intercession of Muhammad, exalt his rank and give him that which asks for in the Hereafter and in this present life, just as You gave to Abraham and Moses.

us to stray from his path and way. O Allah, I ask You for loyalty to his way and seek refuge in You from each deviation from it.

O Allah I ask of You the good that Muhammad, Your prophet and Your messenger, asked of You, may Allah grant him peace and praise him, and I seek refuge in You from the evil from which Muhammad, Your prophet and Your messenger, sought refuge, may Allah grant him peace and praise him. O Allah protect me from the evil of discord and absolve me from all trials, and cleanse me from within and without, and purify my heart from hatred and envy, and do not allow anyone to oppress me.

O Allah I ask You for the good that You know, and to let me pass by the evil that You know, and I ask You to provide me with provision, for indifference to being physically satisfied, a clear way out from every uncertainty, a proper stance in every argument, justice in anger and pleasure, peace in whatever fate ordains, providence in thought and wealth, humility in my words and actions, and sincerity in my seriousness and in my jesting. O Allah, indeed there are sins between You and me and there are sins between Your creation and me.

O Allah, what is this for You, so forgive me my sins and whatever arises from them, bear them for me and enrich me with Your Favor, for Your forgiveness is widespread. O Allah, enlighten the knowledge of my heart and render my body obedient to You and purify me from inner discord and occupy me with contemplation. O Merciful One, protect me from the whisperings of satan, and save me from him, until he no longer has any power over me.

O Allah I ask You the good of that which You know and I seek refuge in You from the evil of that which You know. I seek Your forgiveness for everything You know, for You indeed know and we do not know. Indeed You are the Knower of the Unseen. O Allah, have mercy on me in this time from the encirclement of discord, from the oppression of the insolent, and their deficiencies and all such ills. O Allah, give me an unassailable refuge in You, an impenetrable protection with You from all of Your creation until I reach a virtuous end.

O Allah, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as many times as those who have asked for praises upon him. O Allah, praise our master Muhammad just as You praised our master Abraham and sanctify Muhammad and the family of Muhammad just as You sanctified the family of Abraham, in all worlds, for You are the Praiseworthy, the Mighty.
(And praise him) as much as all of Your creation, to the fullness of Your Pleasure, in the decoration of Your Throne and in the ink of Your Words, and as often as Your creation has remembered You in the past, and as often as they will remember You throughout the rest of time. And praise him in every year, in every month, in every week, in every day, in every night, in every hour, in every inhaling, in every breath, in every blink and in every glance, for ever and ever, for the duration of this world and the duration

O Allah, praise Muhammad, with blessings of contentment, and be pleased with his companions; a pleasure of contentment.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, whose light preceded all creation, whose appearance is a mercy to all the worlds, as much as all Your Creation that has passed away and as much as that which remains. And as much as those of Your Creation who are fortunate and those who are not, with blessings that exceed all enumeration and encompass all limits, blessings with no utmost limit, boundless and ceaseless blessings that are eternal, as long as Your duration, and likewise praise his family, his companions and grant him and them abundant peace in like measure.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, whose heart is so full with Your Glory and whose eyes are so full of Your Beauty that he became overjoyed, supported and victorious, and likewise praise his family and companions and grant him and them abundant peace, and praise be to Allah for all of that.

O Allah, praise Muhammad as many times as there are leaves on an olive tree for blessings upon him, let us be among the victorious and at the pool among the drinkers. O Lord of the Worlds, make us follow his way and obey him, and do not untie the knot which binds us together on the Day of Resurrection, O Lord of the darkness in the murky gloom of the night of doubt, and send blessings which Allahumma salli ala Muhammadin abdika wa rasulikan nabiiyyil ummiyi wa ala ali Muhammadin

O Allah, praise Muhammad, Your worshipper and Your Messenger, the unlettered prophet, and the family of Muhammad.

Allahumma salli ala Muhammadin wa ala ali Muhammadin salatan taqunu laka rahimina.

O Allah, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, with such blessings that are pleasing to You, and with a reward which is his dutiful right, and grant him the nearest station, the pre-eminence and the most praised station which You promised him, and reward him our behalf as he deserves, and reward him on behalf of his nation with that which is better than You have rewarded any other prophet or on behalf of his nation better than any other messenger, and praise all his brothers, the prophets and the righteous, O Most Merciful of the Merciful.

Allahummaj'al faza'ila salawatika wa shara'ifa zakawatika. Wa nawamiya O Allah, bestow the favors of Your noble blessings and virtues, and the increase of Your praise, and the benevolence of Your Compassion, Your Mercy, Your Greetings, and the favors of Your bounties, upon Muhammad, the master of the messengers, the messenger of the Lord of the Worlds, the guide to goodness, the opener of piety, the prophet of mercy and the master of this nation. O Allah, raise him to the most praised station thereby advancing his nearness, comforting his eyes, and making him the envy of those who came first and those who came last. O Allah, grant him Divine Favor, Divine Grace, Divine Honor, the nearest station, the exalted rank and High standing.

Wa balligu mamulahu. Waj' alhu awwala shafi'in wa awwala mushaffa'in.
Allahumma azzim burhanahu wa saqil mizan'ahu wa ablij hujatahu. Wa arfa' fi illiyina darajatahu wa fi a'lal muqarabina manzilatahu. Allahumma ahyina ala sunatihi wa tawaffana ala millatihi wajalna min ahli shafa'atihi. Wahshurna fi zumratihi. Wa awridna mawzahu. Wasqina min ka'sihi gayra khazaya wala nadimina wala shakkina wala mubaddilina wal mugayyirina wala fatihina wala maftunina amin ya rabbal alamina.

Allahumma salli ala Muhammadin wa ala ali Muhammadin wa a'tihil wasilata wal fazilata waddarajatar rafi'ata wab'ashul maqamal mahmudallazi wa adtahu ma'a ikhwanihin nabiyyina. Sallallahu ala Muhammadin nabiyyir rahmati wa sayyidil ummati wa ala abina Adama wa ummina Hawwa'a wa man walada minan nabiyyina wa siddiqina wash shuhada'i wasalihina. Wa salli ala mala'ikatika ajma'ina min ahli samawati wal ardina wa alayna ma'ahum ya arhamar rahimin.

O Allah, grant Muhammad the nearest station and send him what he hopes for and make him the first intercessor and the first whose intercession is accepted. O Allah, strengthen his proof, make his judgment sound, make his argument shine and raise his rank among the dwellers of the uppermost heaven, and raise his standing among the heights of those who are closest. O Allah, cause us to live according to his way, and die following his religion, and let us be among the people of his intercession, and resurrect us in his company and let us be watered from his pool and to drink from his bowl with neither disgrace nor regrets, nor doubts, nor temptations, O Lord of the Worlds. Amen.

O Allah, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, and grant him the nearest station, the pre-eminence and the exalted rank, and raise him to the most praised station which You promised him, with his brother prophets. The blessings of Allah be upon Muhammad, the prophet of mercy and the master of his nation, and upon our father, our master Adam, and upon our mother, lady Eve, and upon all the offspring of the prophets, the truthful, the martyrs and the righteous, and praise all Your angels among the inhabitants of the heavens and earths and us along with them, O Most Merciful of the Merciful.

O Allah, praise Muhammad as You ordered us to ask for blessings upon him. And praise Muhammad as he should be blessed.

O Allah, praise Your prophet, the chosen, Your messenger, the satisfied, Your friend, the elected, and Your custodian of the Celestial Revelation.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, the most noble ancestor, the upholder of justice and equity, the one described in chapter the Ramparts, he who was chosen from noble loins and refined wombs, and the pure suckling, from Abdul Muttalib, son of Abdi Manaf through whom You guided from deviation and through whom You made clear the path of forgiveness.

O Allah, I beseech You by the most superior beseeching, in the most loved of Your Names, in the most noble of Your Names, and for the sake that You blessed us with Muhammad, the praise and peace of Allah, be upon him, saving us through him from error. And that You ordered us to ask for praise upon him and that You made our asking for praise upon him a means of raising our rank, an expiation of our sins, and grace and favor for us. Out of obedience to You, I call on You, exalting Your command, following Your instruction and fulfilling Your promise.

To render unto our Prophet Muhammad, praise and venerations of Allah be upon him, what is due from us, for we have faith in him and believe in him, and we follow the light which came down with him and You said, and Your Word is the truth, 'Allah and His angels praise and venerate the Prophet. Believers, praise and venerate him and pronounce peace upon him in abundance.' And for that You made it obligatory for worshippers to ask for praise upon their Prophet making it an obligation and making it binding on them, I ask You for the sake of the Majesty of Your Face and the Light of Your Greatness, and for the sake of that which You have made binding on You in respect of the virtuous, that You and Your angels praise Muhammad, Your worshipper, Your Messenger, Your Prophet, Your purified and Your treasure from Your creation, the best of praise ever bestowed upon anyone of Your creation, for You are the Praiseworthy, the Mighty.

O Allah, raise his rank, ennoble his station, make his judgment sound, refine his proof, make his religion triumph, increase his reward, make his light radiant, perpetuate his nobility, join him with his descendants and the people of his house which will be a comfort to his eyes and exalt him among all the prophets who do not have his power.

O Allah, Lord of all the prophets let Muhammad have the greatest number of followers, increase them in strength, and give them the most perfect nobility and light, and raise their Ranks, and widen their abodes in the Garden.

O Allah, let their goal be among the foremost in faith and their abode among the elite, and let their dwelling place be among those who are close and their abode among the chosen. O Allah, let their abode be the most noble of the noble in Your presence and favor them with Your reward, let them sit close to You, strengthen their stations, reward them with Your Word, give success to their supplications, favor their share in Your presence, strengthen their longing for that which is with You and bring them into the chambers of Firdaws (top of paradise) in High ranks above which there is no other rank.

O Allah, grant Muhammad, the truest word, the most successful petitioning, the first intercession, the most perfect intercession, and let him intercede on his behalf of his nation with an intercession that will be the envy of those who came first and those who came last, and distinguish Your worshipper in the discharge of Your Decree, and let Muhammad be among the speakers of truth, the doers of good, and the guides to the path.

O Allah, grant excess to our Prophet and make his Pool a promise for the first of us and the last of us. O Allah, resurrect us in his company, establish us on his way, cause us to die following his way, acquaint us with his face and let us be among his company and party.

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, the light of guidance, the guide to goodness, the caller to spiritual direction, the prophet of mercy, the leader of the pious, the messenger of the Lord of the Worlds, there being no prophet after him, just as he conveyed Your Message, advised Your worshippers, recited Your verses, upheld Your Divine Law, faithfully discharged Your Covenant, carried out Your Judgement, enjoined obedience to You, forbidding disobedience to You, befriended Your friend whom You chose to befriend, and opposed Your enemy whom You chose to oppose, and the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him.

O Allah, of all the bodies in existence, praise his body. Of all the souls in existence, praise his soul. Of all the places in existence, praise his place. O Allah, exalt his proof, honour his stature, make his proof radiant and make his excellence clear. O Allah, accept his intercession for his nation, and establish us on his way, allow us to die in his manner, resurrect us in his company beneath his flag, and let us be among his associates, water us at his pool, allow us to drink from his drinking bowl, and enjoy his love, O Allah, Amen.

And I ask You, in the Names in which I have called on You to praise Muhammad, as much as I have uttered and as much as that of which You alone have knowledge, to have mercy on me and accept my repentance, absolve me from all trials and tribulations, forgive me and my (believing) parents and have mercy on all believing men and women, submissive men and women alike (Muslims), the living among them and the dead, and forgive the reader of this Book, the sinner, the erroneous one, the weak one, and accept his/her repentance for You are the Forgiver, the Merciful.

O Allah, I ask You for the sake of the truth that carries Your Throne from the oceans of Your Might, the oceans of Your Power, the oceans of Your Glory, the oceans of Your Splendor and Your oceans of Authority, and for the sake of the truth of Your Names secret and hidden, which You called Yourself and which You sent down in Your Book and which You alone take for Yourself in the unseen world, that You praise Muhammad, Your worshipper and Your messenger

 One translation notes at this point: "The Messenger of Allah, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, said 'Whosoever reads this blessing once, Allah will write for him the reward of an accepted pilgrimage and the reward of freeing a worshipper from the descendants of Ishmael, peace be upon him. And Allah the Exalted says, "O My angels, this is one of My worshippers who asked for abundant blessings upon My Beloved Muhammad, so through My Power, My Generosity, My Splendor, and My Sublimity, I grant him for every letter of the words he utters asking for blessings, a castle in the Garden and I will make him come to me on the Day of Resurrection beneath the Flag of Praise, and the light of his face will be like the full moon and he will be hand in hand with My Beloved Muhammad." ' And in another narration..."

Allahumma salli ala Muhammadin wa ala ali Muhammadin. Wa a'tihil wasilata wal fazilata wa darajatar rafi'ata wab'ashu maqaman Mahmuda nillazi wa'adtahu innaka la tukhliful miad. Allahumma azzim shanahu wa hayyin burhanahu. Wa ablij hujjatahu. Wa bayyin fazilatahu. Wa taqabbal shafa'atahu fil ummatihi wasta'milna bisunnatihi ya rabbal alamina wa ya Rabbal arshil azimi.

Wa radiyallahu an ashabihil a'lami a'immatil huda wa masahbihid dunya wa anit tabi'ina wa tabi'it tabi'ina lahum bi'ihstanin ila yawmiddini. Walhamdu lillahi Rabil Alamina.

O Allah, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, and grant him the nearest station, the pre-eminence, the exalted rank, and raise him to the most praised station which You promised him, for You do not renege on a promise. O Allah, magnify his value, clarify his argument, embellish his proof, make evident his excellence and accept his intercession for his nation and establish us on his way, O Lord of the Worlds. O Lord of the Mighty Throne.

O Allah, O Lord, gather us in his company and beneath his flag, let us drink from his drinking bowl and avail us of his love, Amen, O Lord of the Worlds. O Allah, O Lord, bestow upon him, on our behalf, the best of peace and reward him, on our behalf, better than You have rewarded any prophet on behalf of his nation, O Lord of the Worlds.

O Allah, O Lord, I beseech You to forgive me, have mercy on me, accept my repentance and remove from me all earthly and heavenly trials and tribulations, for You are the Power of all things. Through Your Mercy forgive the believing men and women and the submissive men and women (Muslims), the living and the dead, and the pleasure of Allah be upon his pure wives, the mothers of believers, and the pleasure of Allah be with his companions, the eminent leaders of guidance and lamps of this lower life, and also with the followers, and the followers of the followers, salutations upon them until the Day of Resurrection, and praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds

(3rd Third begins here)

Allahumma Rabbal arwahi wal ajsadil baliyati. As'aluka bita'atil arwahir raji'ati ila ajsadiha. Wa bita'atil ajsadil multa'imati bi uruqiha. Wa bi kalimatikan nafizati fihim. Wa amalan salihan farzuqni.

O Allah, O Lord of souls and mortal flesh, I ask You for the sake of the obedience of souls returning to their bodies (on the Day of Resurrection) and for the sake of the obedience of bodies becoming whole once again, and for the sake of Your Words which will order this and for the sake of Your exacting of Your rights over them, and for the sake of Your Creatures who are before You waiting for the apportioning of Your Decree, hoping for Your Mercy and fearing Your punishment, I ask that You bestow light in my eyes, and the remembrance of You upon my tongue during the day and the night, and provide me with good actions.

Allahumma salli ala Muhammadin kama sallayta ala Ibrahim wa barik ala Muhammadin kama barakta ala Ibrahim.

O Allah, praise Muhammad just as You praised Abraham and sanctify Muhammad just as You sanctified Abraham.

Allahummaj'al salawatika wa barakatika ala Muhammadin wa ali Muhammadin kama ja'altaha ala Ibrahim wa ali Ibrahim innaka hamidun majidun. Wa barik ala Muhammadin wa ala ali Muhammadin kama barakta ala Ibrahim wa ali Ibrahim innaka hamidun majidun.

O Allah, grant Your blessings and Your favors to Muhammad and the family of Muhammad just as You granted them to Abraham and the family of Abraham, for You are the Praiseworthy, the Mighty. And sanctify Muhammad and the family of Muhammad just as You sanctified Abraham and the family of Abraham, for You are the Praiseworthy, the Mighty.

Allahumma salli ala Muhammadin abdika wa rasulika. Wa salli alal mu'minina wal mu'minati wal muslimina wal muslimati.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, Your worshipper and Your Messenger, and praise the believing men and women and submissive men and women (Muslims).

Allahumma salli ala sayyidina Muhammadin wa ala alihi adada ma ahata bihi ilmuka wa ahsahu kitabuka. Wa shahadat bihi mala'ikatuka. Salatan da'imatan dadumu bi dawami mulkillahi.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, and his family as much as Your encompassing Knowledge, and all that is contained in Your Book, and all that is witnessed by Your angels; blessings which are eternal and last as long as Your Kingdom lasts.

Allahumma inni as'aluka bi asma'ikal izami ma alimtu minha wa ma lam a'lam. Wa bil asma'illati sammayta biha nafsaka ma a'limtu minha wa ma lam a'lam. Allahumma salli ala Muhammad adada ilmika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada hilmika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada kalimatika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ni'matika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada fadlika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada judika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada samawatika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ardika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ma khalaqta fi sab'i samawatika min mala'ikatika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ma khalaqta fi ardika minal jinni wal insi wa gayri hima minal wahshi watayri wa gayri hima.

O Allah, I beseech You in Your Greatest Names, those which I know and those I do not, and in the Names that You have named Yourself, Names I do not know and Names I shall I never know. That You praise Muhammad, Your worshipper, Your Prophet and Your Messenger, in all that You created before the sky was built, before the earth was spread out, before the mountains were anchored down, before the springs burst forth, before the rivers flowed out, before the sun blazed forth, before the moon shone out, before the planets illuminated the sky, before the oceans began to flow and before the trees gave of their fruit.

O Allah, praise Muhammad to the fullness of Your Knowledge. O Allah, praise Muhammad to the fullness of Your Forbearance. O Allah, praise Muhammad with as many as the number of Your Words. O Allah, praise Muhammad with as many as the number of Your Favors. O Allah, praise Muhammad to the fullness of Your Grace. O Allah, praise Muhammad to the fullness of Your Generosity. O Allah, praise Muhammad to the fullness of Your heavens. O Allah, praise Muhammad to the fullness of Your earth. And praise Muhammad as the number of all the angels You have created in Your seven heavens. And praise Muhammad as the number of all the jinn and humans and beings other than them, and the beasts and the birds, and creatures other than them, that You have created in Your earth.

Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ma jara bi hil qalamu fi ilmi gaybika wama yajri bihi ila yawmil kiyamati. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adadal qatri wal matari. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada man yahmaduka wa yashkuruka wa yuhalliluka wa yumajjiduka wa yashhadu annaka antallahu. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ma sallayta alayhi anta wa mala'ikatuka. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada kulli sanatin wama takhluku fiha wama yamutu fiha. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ma takhluku kulla yawmin wa ma yamutu fih ila yawmil kiyamati.

Allahumma wa salli ala Muhammadin adadas sahabil jariyati ma baynas sama'i wal ardi wama tamturu minal miyahi. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adada ma khalaqta fi biharika minal hatani wad dawa'abbi wal miyahi war rimali wa gayri zalika. Wa salli ala Muhammadin adadan nabati wal hasa.

And praise Muhammad in all that the pen has written in the knowledge of the unseen and in all that the pen will write until the Day of Resurrection. And praise Muhammad in every dewdrop and in every raindrop, and praise Muhammad as often as You are praised, as often as You are thanked, as often as Your Oneness is declared, as often as You are magnified, as often as it is witnessed that You are indeed Allah, and praise Muhammad as many times as You and Your angels have already praised him. And praise Muhammad as many times as those in Your creation have already asked for blessings upon him, and as many times as all those in creation have not asked for blessings upon him.

And praise Muhammad in every mountain, in every grain of sand and in every stone. And praise Muhammad in every tree and in every one of their leaves, and in the soil and in its weight. And praise Muhammad as many times as there have been years, and all that which You have created and dies in them. And praise Muhammad in all that You create every day and dies every day until the Day of Resurrection.

O Allah, praise Muhammad in every cloud sailing between the heavens and the earth, and in every drop of their rain. And praise Muhammad in every swirling wind in the east of the earth and in the west, in the north and in the south. And praise Muhammad as many times as there are stars in the sky. And praise Muhammad as many times as all the fish, all the creatures of the sea, and all the water, and all the grains of sand and whatever else there is. And praise Muhammad in every plant and in every stone.

O Allah, who gave to our master Adam our master Seth. And to Abraham our masters Ishmael and Isaac. Who returned our master Joseph to our master Jacob, and who removed the trials from our master Job. Who returned our master Moses to his nation and who increased our master Khidr (green man who Moses met in Cave chapter) in knowledge. Who gave our master David our master Solomon, and to our master Zacharayah our master John the Baptist. Who gave to our Lady Maryam our master Jesus and who protected the daughter of Shua'ib. I ask you to praise Muhammad and all the prophets and messengers.

And You who gave to Muhammad, may Allah praise and venerate him and grant him peace, the great intercession and the exalted rank, I ask You to forgive me my sins, conceal all shortcomings, and to give me sanctuary from the Fire, and grant me Your Pleasure, Your Safety, Your Forgiveness and Your Mercy, and admit me into Your Garden along with those You have favored, the prophets, the true, the martyrs and the righteous, for You are the Power of all existence.

And the blessings of Allah be upon Muhammad and upon his family as often as the wind has stirred the gathered clouds, and as often as everything possessed of a soul has tasted death and send abundant peace and salutations to the people of peace in the Abode of Peace. O Allah, keep me for that which You created me and do not let me be preoccupied with that which You provide me, and do not deprive me. I ask You not to punish me and I seek Your Forgiveness

O he who said and his word is true: 'And Allah created you and what you do. There is neither action, nor word, nor movement nor yet any inactivity of His worshippers, that is not already preordained in His Knowledge, His Destiny and His Decree. As I (Al Juzuli) was inspired and destined to compile this Book, and its method and means were facilitated for me, whereby all doubt and misgivings about this noble prophet were removed from my heart, and love for him surpassed the love of all my relatives and loved ones.

I ask You, O Allah, O Allah, O Allah, that you grant me, and all who love and follow him, his intercession and company on the Day of Recompense, without any disputation, punishment, reproach or censure and forgive me my sins, and conceal my shortcomings, O Granter, O Forgiver. And favor me with a glance of Your Noble Face among the dear ones on the Day of Excess and Recompense.

And accept from me my actions and annul all of my failings, lapses and mistakes that You have knowledge of and grant me a visit to his tomb, and peace be upon him, and his companions to the utmost limit of my hope from Your Favor, Your Grace, Your Generosity, Your Nobility, O Gracious, O Merciful, O King. And reward him on my behalf and on behalf of every Muslim man and woman, living or dead, who believes in him and follows him, better than, more perfect than and more extensively than You have rewarded anyone from Your creation, O Powerful, O Mighty, O Sublime.

And praise him and his family as the number of Your exalters, Your worshippers, Your prostrated worshippers and Your magnifiers, from the day You created this world until the Day of Resurrection, every day a thousand times. And praise him and his family as many times as the years in which You created them from the day You created this world until the Day of Resurrection, every day a thousand times. And praise him and his family in every tree, every fruit, every leaf and every plant of the earth, in the south and in the north, in the east and west, on the Plains and in the hills, and in everything You have produced from it and in everything You will produce from it from the day You created the world until the Day of Resurrection, every day a thousand times.

And praise him and his family in every darkening night and in every brightening day. And praise him and his family in the end and in the beginning. And praise him and his family from the time he was in the cradle until his time of maturity when You took him to Yourself, justly satisfied and until You finally send him as a welcome intercessor. And praise him and his family in all of Your creation, to the fullness of Your Pleasure, in the decoration of Your Throne, in the ink of Your Words.

And grant him the nearest station, the pre-eminence, the exalted rank, the oft-visited pool, the most praised station, and the greatest standing. Enhance his proof, ennoble his stature, raise his station, and let us, O Lord, follow his way and let us die following his religion. And resurrect us in his company, beneath his flag, place us in his assembly, water us at his pool.

Let us drink from his drinking bowl, grant us his love, accept our repentance, remove from us all trials and tribulations, inner and outer discord, and have mercy on us, pardon us and forgive us along with all the believing men and women and submissive men and women (Muslims), the living and the dead, and praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds, and He suffices me and He is the best of Protectors and there is no help or power except in Allah, the High, the Mighty.

family of Muhammad in the cooing of doves, in the circling of beasts around waterholes, in the grazing of cattle, as the wearable amulets benefits, in the winding of turbans and in the sleep of slumbers.

O Allah praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad in the breaking dawns, in the blowing winds, in the creeping shades, in the succeeding mornings and evenings, in the girding of armor, in the impounding of lances, and in the healing of bodies and souls.

O Allah praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad in the rotation of the celestial bodies, in the overshadowing of darkness and in the glorifying of angels.

O Allah praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad just as You praised Abraham, and sanctify Muhammad just as You sanctified Abraham in all the worlds, for You are indeed the Praiseworthy, the Mighty.

O Allah praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad in the rising sun, in the establishment of the five daily prayers, in lightning which strikes in the falling rain and in the pealing of the thunder.

Allahumma salli ala Muhammadin wa ala ali Muhammadin mil'as samawati wal ardi. Wa mil'a ma baynahuma wa mil'a mashi'ta min shay'in ba'du. Allahumma kama qama bi a'ba'ir risalati. O Allah praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad to the fullness of the heavens and the earth, and to the fullness of whatever is between them and to the fullness of whatever You have created elsewhere. O Allah, as he bore the responsibility of the Message, delivered creation from ignorance, struggled against the people of disbelief and error, called to Your Oneness, endured hardships in guiding Your worshippers. Then grant him, O Allah, his wishes, fulfill his hopes, and give him the nearest station, the pre-eminence, the exalted rank, and raise him to the most praised station which You promised him, for You never renege on a promise.

O Allah, make us the followers of his law, and those known for their love of him, and those guided by his guidance and life, and let us die following his way, and do not deny us the favor of his intercession, and resurrect us among his followers, those shining with light, his foremost companions, the companions of the right hand, O Most Merciful of the Merciful. O Allah praise Your angels, Your archangels, Your prophets and Your messengers, and Your obedient people, and may our asking for such blessings be a mercy for us.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, the envoy from Tihama, the commander and upholder of justice, the intercessor for the sinful on the courtyards of the Day of Resurrection. O Allah, send to our Prophet, our advocate and our beloved, on our behalf, the finest blessings and peace, and raise him to the most praised and noble station, and grant him the pre-eminence, the nearest station and the exalted rank which You have promised him on the Great Day of Standing.

And bless him, O Allah, with blessings eternal, continual, continuous and everlasting. O Allah, bless him and his family in the lightening which strikes, in the day which dawns, in the night which obscures and in the rain which pours.
And bless him and his family to the fullness of the Table and the cosmos and in every star and sky and in every raindrop and in every stone, and bless him and his family with blessings innumerable and incalculable.

O Allah, bless him in the decoration of Your Throne, to the full extent of Your Pleasure, in the ink of Your words and to the bounds of Your Mercy. O Allah, praise him and his family, his wives and descendants, and sanctify him and his family, his wives and descendants just as You blessed and sanctified Abraham and the family of Abraham, for You are indeed the Praiseworthy, the Mighty.
And reward him, on our behalf, better than You have rewarded any prophet on behalf of his nation, and place us among those guided by the way of his law, guide us through his guidance, let us die following his religion, and resurrect us on the Day of the Greatest Terror among the faithful in his company and let us die loving him and loving his family, his companions and his descendants.

O Allah. Bless Muhammad, the finest of Your prophets, the noblest of Your friends, the leader of Your Saints, the seal of Your prophets, the beloved of the Lord of the Worlds, the witness for the Messengers, the advocate of sinners, the master of all the children of Adam. He who was mentioned highly among the highest angels, the news-bringer, the warner, the shining lamp, the truthful, the trustworthy, the clear truth, the compassionate and merciful, the guide to the Straight Path and to whom You granted the seven oft-mentioned verses and the Mighty Koran, the prophet of mercy, the guide of the nation, the first upon whom the earth breathed and the first to enter the Garden, the one supported by our master Gabriel and our master Michael, the one announced in the Torah and in the Gospel, the chosen, the elect, the selected, father of Qasim, Muhammad, son of Abdullah, son of Abdul Muttalib, son of Hashim.

O Allah, praise Your Highest angels who glorify You without ceasing, night and day, and who never disobey You in Your orders and who carry out what they have been ordered to do.

O Allah, just as You have chosen them to be the envoys to Your messengers, guardians of Your Revelations and witnesses over Your creation, and have allowed them to pass through the folds of Your veils, and have given access to Your hidden, unseen realms and have chosen them to be the guardians of Your garden and the bearers of Your Throne, and have made them the most numerous of Your soldiers, and have favored them over mortal men, and have populated the High heavens with them, and freed them from disobedience and baseness, and sanctified them from shortcomings and misfortunes, so praise them eternally and may this request serve as a means of increasing their favor, and a means of their asking forgiveness for us.

O Allah, praise all of Your prophets and messengers whose hearts You have opened, to whom You have entrusted Your Wisdom, to whom You have empowered with Your prophethood, and to whom You revealed Your Books, by whom Your creation has been guided, who have called to Your Oneness, who have looked forward to Your promise and feared Your threat, who have guided to Your path, who have upheld Your proof and evidence, and grant them abundant peace. O Allah through this request for them bestow upon us a Mighty reward. O Allah, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad with acceptable eternal blessings, that discharge us of his overwhelming rights upon us.

possessor of beauty and handsomeness, of splendor and perfection, of radiance and light, of youthful servants and houris, of chambers and palaces, of a grateful tongue and a praiseworthy heart, of renowned knowledge and victorious

Sanctuary, of infallibility, of an orphan's upbringing, of the pilgrimage, of the Koranic recitation, of the glorification of the Most Merciful,

Of the fast of Ramadan, of the flag, of nobility and generosity. The fulfiller of promises, the possessor of longing for Allah, the one who kindled such longing in others, the owner of the mule (his mount), of noble birth, of the pool, of the scepter, the prophet of return, the speaker with reward, the one mentioned in the Book, the prophet and worshipper of Allah, the prophet and treasure of Allah, the prophet and proof of Allah, the prophet of obedience to whom is the same as obedience to Allah, and to whom disobedience is the same as disobedience to Allah, the prophet of The possessor of the most handsome face, the naturally mascara eyebrows, the noble cheeks, and springs of Kawthar (Prophetic pool/lake in Paradise) and Salsabil, the conqueror of the Arabic speaking peoples, the destroyer of the unbelievers, the slayer of the polytheists, the guide to the Divine Garden and vicinity of the Merciful for those with shining faces and shining limbs, the companion of our master Gabriel peace be upon him, the messenger of the Lord of the Worlds, the advocate for sinners even though their sins reach the limits of the clouds. The lamp of the darkness and the full moon

May the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him and upon his most pure chosen family, blessings that are both eternal and everlasting, never diminishing.
Blessings by means of which his happiness is renewed, his sending and his resurrection on the Promised Day are honored. Bless him and his family, the rising stars, with blessings more generous than the abundance of pouring rain. Send them to the one, who of all Arabs, is more just, more eloquent, greater in faith. Higher in station, more articulate in speech, more cautious of the rights of others and purer in his aversion for others (his enemies). For he enlightened the Path and advised creation, made Islam known and destroyed the idols, made justice appear and forbade the prohibited, and spread favors to the whole world, may the best blessings of Allah be upon him and his family at every gathering and every place. May Allah praise and give peace to him over and over again.

Blessings which are a source of treasure, may the blessings of Allah be upon him and his family, complete and pure blessings, and the blessings Allah be upon him and his family, blessings ensured by fragrances and perfumes, followed by forgiveness and satisfaction.

And the blessings of Allah be upon the one through whom the lineage (of mankind) was most permeated with goodness and because of whom (the remembrance of) Glory was exalted, and through the light of whose cheeks the moon was illuminated, and the generosity of his right hand illuminated the clouds and seas, our master and Prophet Muhammad, who by the splendor of his signs illuminated the Highlands and the lowlands, and by the miracles of his signs the Book was enunciated and the good news transmitted. The blessings of Allah be upon him and his family, and his companions who emigrated to help him and helped him to emigrate, and blessed be the Emigrants and blessed be the Helpers, blessings which grow and are eternal for as long as birds chirp in the forests, rain streams down in abundance,

And multiply the eternal blessings upon him. O Allah, praise Muhammad, and his good and noble family with blessings that are perpetual and eternally bound with the duration of the Owner of Majesty and Nobility. O Allah, praise Muhammad who is the Pillar of majesty, the sun of prophethood and the message. The guide from error and the critic of ignorance, the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him, eternal blessings bound with, and continuously repeating in accordance with, the alternation of days and nights.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, the ascetic prophet, the messenger of the only Eternal King, may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him, blessings that are eternal, and reach the farthest limit of eternity, with neither break nor depletion, blessings that save us from the heat of the fires of Hell; an evil resting place. O Allah, praise and grant peace to Muhammad, the unlettered prophet, and his family, blessings that are uncountable and blessings whose supply is not impeded. O Allah, praise Muhammad with blessings that ennoble his abode and blessings that on the Day of Judgement procure his pleasure through his intercession.

O Allah, praise Muhammad, the prophet of noble origin, the Highbred master, who came with the prophetic quotations and Revelation, and who clarified the meaning of interpretation, and to whom came the faithful one, our master Gabriel, peace be upon him, with honor and dignity and who journeyed with him to the King, the Glorious One, on the long dark night and revealed to him the heights of kingdoms of heaven, and showed him the supremacy of the Omnipotence of the heavens, and who saw the Power of the Living, the Eternal, the Abiding, the One who never dies. May the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, blessings permeated with beauty, charm, perfection, goodness and favor.

family of Muhammad as many times as there are drops of rain. And, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, as many times as there are leaves on the trees. And, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad in as much abundance as there is foam upon the sea. And, praise Muhammad and the family of
grains of sand in the desert and in the wilderness. And, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as many times as much as the weight of all the mountains and all the rocks combined.

And, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, as many times as there are dwellers of the Garden and dwellers of the Fire. And, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as many times as there are those who are righteous and many times as there are those who are corrupt. And, praise Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as many times as the night has alternated with the day.
And make, O Allah, our asking for blessings upon him a shield which gives us protection from the punishment of the Fire and a means of us gaining permission to enter the Abode of Permanence, for You are the Mighty, the Forgiving.

May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Muhammad and upon his virtuous family, his blessed descendants, his honored companions and his wives who are the Mothers of the Believers.
Blessings that are continual and frequent until the Day of Judgement. O Allah, praise the master of the righteous, the adornment of the messengers, the choicest and noblest ever to have been cloaked in the darkness of the night, or bathed in the light of the day.

O Allah, O Master of Favor, whose Strength and Might are unequalled, and whose Favor and Virtue are beyond compare, we ask You and nobody else but You, to loosen our tongues in beseeching You, and grant us success in doing good deeds, and let us be among the trustworthy on the Day of Convulsions and Earthquakes, O Creator of Might and Glory. I ask You, O Light of the Light, for that which was before time and eternity. You are the Abiding with no end, the Rich with no equal, the Holy, the Pure, the High, the Powerful, the One who is neither encompassed by space nor contained by time.

I ask You in all of Your most beautiful Names and in the greatest of Your Names, and for the sake of the rank most noble to You, and for the sake of the most plentiful reward with You, and for the sake of the promptest response from You, and in Your protected and hidden Name, the Most Exalted of the Exalted, the Greatest of the Great, the Most Magnificent of the Magnificent, the One who responds to and satisfies whosoever calls upon You in them and whose prayer is accepted.

I ask You in Your Greatest Name in which when we pray, our prayer is granted, and in which when we make a request, our request is granted.

And I ask You in the Name that humbles with its Might the Mighty ones, the kings, the lions, the reptiles and everything You have created. O Allah, O Lord, accept my prayer. O You to whom is the Majesty and Omnipotence, O Master of Sovereignty and Kingdoms, You who are the Living who never dies, glory be to You, Lord. What is greater than Your Rank, Higher than Your Position? You are my Lord. O Holy One in His Omnipotence, I beseech You and I fear You. O Great, O Majestic, O Powerful. O Almighty, O Strong, You have blessed Yourself, O Great One, You have exalted Yourself, O Knowing One, Glory be to You, O Great One, Glory be to You, O Splendid One.

I ask You in Your Great, Perfect and Majestic Name, not to give dominion over me to the tyrant, the stubborn, the rebellious satan, the envious, the weak among Your creation, the oppressor, the ruinous, the corrupter, the idolater, or the willful.

O Allah, I ask You and I bear witness that You are Allah, and there is no god except You, the One, the Only, the Eternal, the One who neither begets nor was begotten, and there is nothing like Him, O He, O the One who there is no other except He, O the One who there is no god except He, O my Infinity, O my Eternity, O my Destiny, O my Everlasting. O the One who is the Living who does not die. O our God and God of everything, God alone, there is no god except You.

O Allah, Creator of the heavens and the earth, Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Merciful, the Most Merciful, the Living, the Everlasting, the Judge, the Benefactor, the Munificent, the Reviver, the Inheritor, the Master of Glory and Honor. The hearts of all creatures are between Your hands, we entrust them to You, for You cause goodness to grow in their hearts and You erase the evil from them, as You will.

So I ask You, O Allah, that You erase from my heart everything that You hate and fill my heart with fear of You, knowledge of You, awe of You, longing for what is with You, and security and well-being, and have pity on us with mercy and blessings from You, and inspire in us that which is proper and wise. And I ask You, O Allah, for the knowledge of those who fear, the repentance of the humble, the sincerity of those who are certain, the gratitude of the patient, and the penitence of the truthful.

And in our graves and in our gathering and in our resurrection and shade for us on the Day Judgement over our heads.
And weigh down the scales thereby with good actions. And repeat its blessing on us until we meet with our Prophet Muhammad, Allah's blessings and peace be upon him and his family, and we are believing, we are certain, we are overjoyed and we are the receivers of good news. And do not separate us from him until You make us enter through his entrance hall and accommodate us in his noble neighbourhad with those You have favoured among the Prophets, the Truthful Ones, the Martyrs and the Righteous Ones, and what a fine company they are.

O Allah, we have believed in him, the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him, without seeing him, so make us enjoy, O Allah, a vision of him in the two realms and keep our hearts always in love with him. And establish us upon his way. And cause us to die following his religion. And resurrect us in his secure company and party of success.
And avail us of that love of him, the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him, which is locked away in our hearts on the day when there will be no ancestors, no wealth and no sons (that is, to speak up for us). And have us drink at his Purest pool. To drink from his Fullest Chalice. And facilitate for us a visit to Your Sacred Place (Mecca) and his Sacred Place (Medina) before You cause us to die. And make our stay at Your Sacred Place and His Sacred Place the
him, last until we pass away.

O Allah, we seek his intercession with You, for his is the most lauded intercession with You. And we entreat You through him for he is the greatest one to entreat You. We seek access to You through him for his is the closest access to You. We complain to You, O Lord, about the hardness of our hearts. And the abundance of our sins. And extent of our hopes. And the imperfection of our actions. And our laziness to do good deeds. And our haste to commit bad deeds. Bestow upon this plaintiff, You, O Lord, victory over our enemies. And help our souls. And through Your Grace make us rely solely on our good acts and not upon anything else, O our Lord. O Allah, we associate ourselves with the honour of Your messenger, the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him, so do not distance us. And we stop at Your Door so do not turn us away. And we ask You alone so do not disappoint us.

O Allah, have mercy upon our imploring and allay our fear. Accept our actions and make us righteous. Make obedience to You our main occupation. And make us use our wealth only for good. And fulfil our hopes and more. And seal our final destinations with happiness. Thus is our lowliness made clear before You and our condition is not hidden from You. You have commanded us and we have been heedless. You have forbidden us and we have transgressed. Nothing is wider than Your Clemency. So pardon us, O Best Fulfiller of Hopes. And Most Generous Requestee. For You are the Pardoner, the Forgiver, the Merciful, O Most Merciful of the Merciful. And the blessings and abundant peace of Allah be upon our master Muhammad and upon his family and Companions and praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds.

And He suffices me and He is the best Protector. And there is no help or power except with Allah, the High, the Mighty.
